

Erasmus+

STUDYING IN POLAND

1st Erasmus+ project meeting, Lahr, Germany, 2014.

FUNDING PROGRAMMES FOR FOREIGNERS

CEEPUS

“Central European Exchange Program for University Studies” is an exchange program for students from Central Europe. The main activity of CEEPUS are university networks operating joint programs ideally leading to Joint Degrees, esp. Joint Doctoral Programs. CEEPUS covers mobility grants for students and teachers in this framework..

Leonardo da Vinci

Leonardo da Vinci is a part of the European Union educational system “Lifelong Learning Programme”. It supports the education and vocational courses.

Utrecht Network

Utrecht Network- the group of 28 colleges that represent 31 European Universities working together in the area of international cooperation. The range of Utrecht Network group operations includes: students exchange as well as promotion of summer schools conducted in foreign language and their master's programs.

Education 2014

---

The aim of this program is to finance undergraduate courses at The Higher School of Hebrew Philology in Toruń, Poland, for people from Ukraine, Belarus, Russia, Latvia, Kazakhstan and Poland who want to study Hebrew philology. The scholarship is also available for the citizens from other countries depending on the program funds.

Jagiellonian University

There are several institutions granting scholarships or other aid, thanks to which, foreign students may study at the University without being obliged to pay for anything. These institutions are for example: Queen Jadwiga Fund, International Visegrad Fund, Józef Mianowski Fund, Adam Mickiewicz Fund, Lenekassen Grant, The Kosciuszko Foundation, Polish-U.S. Fulbright Commission and bilateral agreements. Students that want to study at the Jagiellonian University within Erasmus, CEEPUS, bilateral agreements, and Utrecht Network programs are given a wide range of courses in polish as well as in foreign languages available on 15 departments of the university.

The University of Warsaw

The University is the part of the following educational programs:
International Visegrad Fund, Scholarship and Educational Fund

SCHOLARSHIPS FOR FOREIGN STUDENTS

ERASMUS+

Erasmus+

You can study in Poland thanks to ERASMUS+ program. The best universities take part in this program.

You have an opportunity to choose a course in Polish or in English.

The Polish Government Scholarship

- ❖ The Polish Government Scholarship will not only pay your tuition fees but also give you a monthly allowance, which will cover some of your everyday living costs.
- ❖ The Government Scholarship is granted for a specific period of time. However, you may apply to extend it to cover the total time of your studies in Poland.

INTERCULTURAL STUDIES

Institute of Intercultural Studies

UNIWERSYTET
JAGIELLOŃSKI
W KRAKOWIE

- ❖ Candidates may apply for admission to the two fields of studies:
- ❖ Intercultural Relations,
- ❖ International Cultural Studies.

INTERNSHIPS FOR FOREIGN STUDENTS

Erasmus+

THANK YOU FOR YOUR ATTENTION!

1. Erasmus+ project meeting, Lahr, Germany, 2014.